

Submission of the application by the applicant to the National Center for the Education Quality Enhancement

The list of documents to be submitted by the applicant to NCEQE:

- 1. Copy of document confirming citizenship / a copy of the residence certificate in case of being stateless;*
- 2. Copy of the confirmation document on Complete general or its equivalent education received in a foreign country;*
- 3. Rector's written consent on possibility of accepting a person in a vacant position within the total number of students.*

The list of documents to be submitted by the student to NCEQE:

- 1. Copy of document confirming citizenship / a copy of the residence certificate in case of being stateless;*
- 2. Rector's written consent on possibility of accepting a student in a vacant position within the total number of students.*
- 3. A copy of the document confirming the credits/qualification received in the HEI of the foreign country.*

Note:

- Documents drawn up in a foreign language must be translated into Georgian and certified by a notary.*
- The students' applications are reviewed in the Ministry after the National Center for Education Quality Enhancement (NCEQE) submits to the Ministry a document on the compatibility of the credits acquired by a person in a foreign country with the educational program of the Georgian HEI.*